THIRTEEN MEN ENTOMBED.

TERRIBLE DISASTER IN ONE OF THE KINGSTON COAL COMPANY'S MINES.

An extended fall of top rock and coal occured in the Gaylord mine of the Kingston Coal Company at Plymouth, early Tuesday morning, either crushing thirteen miners to death or entombing them in a living grave.

At 7 o'clock Monday night fifteen men went into the mine, the thirteen unfortunates and General Mine Superintendent George Picton and Stable Boss George Brace. They proceeded to what is called the No. 2 plane, a gangway commencing about 300 feet from the foot of the shaft and extending upward, at a pitch of eight degrees, two thousand feet, connecting with the upper working of the same mine.

THE RESULT OF NEGLECT.

This portion of the mine was worked out some years ago, the company leaving pillars of coal to support the roof. Of late these pillars have, as the miners say, been "robbed;" that is, the company has been cutting them down, in direct violation of the mine law, thus getting good coal at little expense, while they weakened the roof. Some few weeks ago the roof began "working," small chips flying off and giving notice that unless more supports were put in a cave in would occur. The company was rather slow in taking the necessary precautions, and it was not until a day or so ago that Mine Foreman Picton was notified to begin timbering the weak roof.

Selecting twelve of his most experienced miners he commenced work that night. A stock of timbers was already on hand and the party reaching a spot about 1,300 feet from the foot of the plane prepared for work. General Superintendent Picton directed his son how to proceed, and then left the party at 10 o'clock. He then realized the danger of the work before the men, and said: "Boys, if there is any sign of a cave-in don't stop to see it, but for God's sake run out to a safe place."

"All right," the men replied, and set to work with a will.

A CAVE-IN.

At 1 o'clock Tuesday morning Stable Boss Brace left them and went out to attend to his mules. At that time the roof was chipping but there was no pronounced indications of a fall. It was about 3 o'clock in the morning that the engineer in charge of the fan felt that the air current was blocked, and he realized something serious had occurred. He at once notified the fire bosses, and while they went down the mine to investigate Superintendent John B. Davis and the assistant foreman were sent for.

They quickly formed a party of miners, and, going down to the bottom of the shaft, proceeded up the No. 2 plane. Hardly had they gone eight hundred feet when they were driven back by a fall, which, though gradual, was quickly eating its way forward. This fall continued until 5 o'clock in the morning, by which time it had reached a point within five hundred feet of the foot of the shaft.

It was 7 o'clock before the news was spread around the town by the miners who came to work on the first shift, and soon through the cold gray mist of the early morning came form after form to gather at the top of the shaft to inquire anxiously for news from below. There was little to be had until an old miner, hardened with the toil of years and yet soft at heart as a child, came up from the depths below and, with every word accented with tears, told the story. It was passed from lip to lip until it reached the ears of every one of the three thousand or more people who stood there.

HOPING AGAINST HOPE.

The cave-in took place in what is known as the Five-Foot, Seven-Foot and Bennett veins. It covers an area of about a mile each way and affects the central portion of the town of Plymouth. The surface has not become affected yet, with the exception of a few cracks that are here and there visible. There is really little hope of the men being taken out alive. They were almost in the centre of the gangway in which the fall occurred and the nearest outlet was 300 feet away. Had the fall been gradual and in front of them they would, perhaps, have been able to run out ahead of it to a point of safety. If it started in front of them they are shut in; if it occurred at once they are dead beneath it.

RESCUERS AT WORK.

Nothing is being left undone in efforts to reach them. A large gang is now at work removing the fall and making a passageway up the gangway to where the men were working. They are timbering as they go, but work every minute as they will they cannot reach the entombed men in less than three or four days. Evan Evans, a miner, forced his way down through a small passageway starting at the hill top, where the coal crops out, a considerable distance down into the mine. Reaching the head of the plane he crawled on his stomach some distance inside, but so dangerous was it, the walls working all the time and chips of rock flying all about him, that he returned, and it was decided impossible to reach the men by that route. All that can be done now is to force the work up the gangway to the spot where the men were working.

Relays of men are searching the old workings above the plane in the hope of finding that some of the men have escaped the fall and are waiting there for rescue. If the men are caught between two falls they will be able to live three, possibly four days, providing the air holds out, and it is thought it will.

In the event of the shaft closing, as it is feared it will, all attempts at rescuing the bodies will have to be abandoned for some time.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The regular monthly meeting of Town Council was held in the Council room on Thursday night, 8th inst., the President and all the members present.

Treasurer J. H. Maize asked authority to proceed to collect the balance of the license due from last year, $570, for the Town of Bloomsburg, now in the hands of the County Treasurer. This year's license has all been paid.

Mr. Peacock moved that the President first demand of the County Treasurer the sum due, and that, if refused, the President direct the Town Treasurer to proceed by law, if the fee demanded by Mr. Maize is, in the President's opinion, a reasonable one. Motion seconded by Mr. Gorrey and carried.

Moved that upon proper releases being filed the grade be given on East First street, as per request of Mr. D. Armstrong. Seconded and carried. This is asked for the reason that Mr. Armstrong wants to build and wants water put up said street.

Ordinance No. 77 to vacate a portion of public road known as Ninth street, from Catharine street to Market, on south side of the canal, read, and on motion of Mr. Peacock and Mr. Holmes, adopted unanimously.

Mrs. Daniel Bowman asked to be exonerated from tax on her property on Third street. No action taken.

C. W. Miller asked on behalf of Wm. Rabb and others to have Fifth street, west of West street, graded, so as to put down pavements. On motion of Housel and Swentzel the Engineer is directed to give grade of same, and amended by Holmes, that work be commenced at once.

Dr. Willits granted permits to build two houses on Leonard street, near the Ralston addition.

The following was presented: "I have taken away my fence and removed all obstructions along my property on south side of Fifth street, for which a jury of appraisers allowed me $263 damages, and I hereby demand payment for same.

I. HAGENBUCH."

No action taken.

Adjourned.

Collector Grant Herring, of the Twelfth revenue district, is at the Continental. Mr. Herring was one of the most useful members of the Senate and has taken a prominent part in Democratic State conventions, his style of oratory being both pleasing and effective. It is probable that he will remove the office from Scranton to Bloomsburg, and leading in his appointments will be Editor James W. Maloy, of the Lansford Record. Colonel J. Henry Cochran, of Williamsport, whom leading Lycoming Democrats want to succeed Herring as Senator from the Twenty-fourth district, is also at the Continental, along with Passenger Agent James C. Boyd, of Harrisburg, and W. L. Conyngham, of Wilkes-Barre.—Phila. Times.

Moyer Bros. and C. C. Peacock will erect a three story brick building on the corner of Main and Market in the spring. The upper floors of the Moyer side will be arranged for a residence, and those of the Peacock side for offices. The store rooms will be occupied by S. F. Peacock & Co. and J. W. Moyer.

MR. SALSBURG'S DEATH.

This community was shocked on Sunday morning when it learned that during the night previous Peter Salsburg, of the firm of Gidding and Salsburg, had died suddenly, and almost without warning. He had been troubled somewhat with a cough, for several weeks, but he had been attending to business, and was at the store as usual on Saturday. Several persons spoke to him of his cough, and urged him to be careful, but he did not consider himself in any danger. He went to E. F. Row's barber shop and got shaved, after ten o'clock, and while sitting in the chair he had an attack of coughing, and was obliged to sit up in the chair while being shaved. From there he went to Mrs. Phillips', where he boarded, and sat in the parlor for some time talking, when he coughed once, and arose and started for his room, but came back in a moment with blood streaming from his mouth. He sat down on the sofa, and in a few moments became unconscious, and within fifteen minutes from the first attack he had ceased breathing. Several of the boarders and members of the family were with him, and F. H. Wilson went for Dr. Gardner at once, but he died before the Doctor came. It is supposed that his coughing ruptured a blood vessel, and filled the lungs with blood, thus suffocating him

He has been a resident of Blooomsburg about a year, engaged in the clothing business with J. M. Gidding, and had made many friends here. His relatives reside in Wilkes-Barre, and some of them came down on the Sunday evening train, and took the remains to that city on Monday. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon.

What the Sledges Sometimes Bring.

On Tuesday afternoon the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Creasy was the scene of an enjoyable occasion. Two four horse sled-loads of folks came merrily across the snow to visit them, one from Bloomsburg, the other from Centre, Mr. and Mrs. Creasy's former home. Among those prominent from Bloomsburg were the Misses McKelvy, Mrs. Wolverton and daughter Mrs. Geo. Wilson, Mrs. Chas. Runyon, Mrs. Emanuel Kelchner, Mrs. Thomas Hagenbuch and son, Mr. and Mrs. Rutter Hagenbuch, Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Creasy and daughter. Mr. Creasy, a progressive spirited man, is a retired farmer and has selected our beautiful town as his home. He purchased the handsome residence opposite Freas Fowler and has settled down to the quiet social enjoyment which only a comfortable income can insure. His brother Lafayette selected Bloomsburg and erected a handsome residence in that town, but Mr. and Mrs. Philip Creasy are very well satisfied with healthful Berwick.—Berwick Independent.

BARTHOLOMEW'S EQUINE PARADOX.

Prof. Bartholomew's original and only equine paradox, of 24 educated horses will appear in the Opera House on Monday evening, February 19th, and Tuesday afternoon and evening, the 20th. This is one of the most wonderful exhibitions of trained horses, and is celebrated the world over. They play school, ring bells, dance, march, hold court, have a picnic, go through a military drill, engage in battle, and do many other marvelous things. No one should fail to see this great exhibition.

Only One Big Show.

It is announced that there will be only one big show on the road the coming season. Owing to the hard times, it has been decided to send out the Barnum & Bailey show and to leave Forepaugh's at home. The spectacular feature is to be replaced by an exhibition by Prof. Arstingstall of fifty trained animals in one huge stall.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., post office and will be sent to the dead letter office Feb. 27, 1894.

Mr. Edward Abbet, T. C. Bort, Miss Dora Clouse, E. H. Dietterick, Miss Mary Force, Mr. William W. Kelly, Miss Hattie Shaffer, Mr. Oliver Watts.

Cards—Mr. Joseph Hippensteel.

Persons calling for these letters will please say they were advertised Feb. 13, 1893. One cent will be charged on each letter advertised.

A. B. CATHCART, P. M.

Wednesday was St. Valentine's day and the little folks were just as much interested in it as they always have been, and probably always will be. A large amount of mail matter was handled at the post office.

THE BALLOTS.

The printing of the ballots for next Tuesday's election is a big job, the labor being increased by the mistake made by the caucus in many districts in nominating more persons for certain offices than can be elected. In one township two persons were nominated by the same caucus for tax collector, and in many of the districts two inspectors were nominated by the same caucus. The law does not intend this, as no one can vote for more than one inspector. In printing the tickets it was necessary in such cases to put the words "vote for one," or "vote for two," as the case may be, over the names of the candidates. When the tickets are printed in that way the voter will have to mark opposite the names of all those for whom he wishes to vote, for if he marks in the circle over the congress at-large ballot, and does not designate in some way for whom he wishes to vote where there are more names in the same column for any office than can be elected, his vote on that office cannot be counted at all. The combined state and township ticket is an anomaly, and it was very difficult to get some of them into any kind of intelligible shape, but we have done the best we could, and if they are somewhat awkward, it is the fault of the caucuses, and not that of the printer.

Everyone should examine his ballot and read it all the way down, and see that it is marked properly, so that no votes will be lost.

Celebration of Washington's Birthday.

In order to revive the spirit of patriotism of the people and especially the rising generation, we propose to celebrate Washington's birthday in the following manner; The State Normal School of Bloomsburg, has completed their new building and propose to dedicate it on Feb. 22, and the P. O. S. of A. intend to present the school with a flag on that day. There will be present in behalf of the Normal School, several of the State officers, and also in behalf of the P O. S. of A. there will be present both State and National officers. The flag will be presented in behalf of all the camps in Columbia county. In connection with this there will be a District convention held in the Opera House in the afternoon by all the camps of Columbia county, and also in the evening there will be a meeting held in the Opera House, to which the public is cordially invited. There will be prominent speakers to discuss the dangers with which our country and flag are menaced, as well as the objects of the order. Good music will be in attendance. Exercises will commence at ten o'clock a. m. at the Normal School. For further particulars see program. COMMITTEE,

P. O. S. of A.

The Williamsport Republican, of last Friday, says:

"Internal Revenue Collector Grant Herring arrived in town to day, and is a guest at the Updegraft.

He has not yet appointed his Collector for this sub-district, and probably will not before the end of this month. There are now three applicants for the position, namely: W. S. Montgomery, of Muncy; John Kift, of Muncy Station, and James Fulmer, of this city. Many people are of the opinion that Mr. Montgomery will pluck the plum."

Up to the fall of snow two weeks ago, says the Towanda Republican, there was more or less plowing done every day in December of 1893 and January of 1894, labor unusual in this region at the same period. It is now likely that no further plowing will be done during what is left of the winter, but as Easter comes early this year the augury is that seeding will also be early in the spring, which makes the outlook for early agricultural work encouraging.

A large force of printers is at work at this office getting ready the tickets for the township election next Tuesday. The state ticket at the top, for congressman-at-large, is seven columns wide, and the ballots will be eighteen inches square. The job was put out at competitive bids, but THE COLUMBIAN was the only office that put in a bid.

W. H. Miller purchased the property of D. S. Brown and wife in Mifflinville, at Sheriff's sale at the Court House on Monday, for $50. There are mortgages on the property amounting to $1000, which are not divested by the sale.

The best sleighing of the winter is now on, and the jingle of the merry sleigh bells is constantly heard. Every evening there are sleighing parties.

BRIEF MENTION.

About People You Know.

Dr. D. J. Waller spent last Friday in Bloomsburg.

J. K. Lockard and son, William, went to New York on Monday.

J. J. Lawall has moved into A. C. Freas' property, next to the M. E. Church.

F. B. Hartman went to Buffalo and Erie this week on business for Creasy & Wells.

M. V. B. Kline of Catawissa, was among the visitors to Bloomsburg on Monday. He had business with the commissioners.

W. H. Slate and Samuel H. Harman attended the banquet of the Young Men's Republican Club at the Hotel Updegraff, Williamsport, on Monday night.

Thomas McBride, steward of the Bloom Poor district farm, was in town on Monday for the first time in five weeks. He has been confined to the house with the grip.

County Treasurer Fowler was prevented from coming to Bloomsburg from his home at Pine Summit on Monday by illness. The office is in charge of Deputy J. B. Casey in his absence.

F. J. Richards is interested in the new brass and copper works at Shickshinny, and went to New York on Tuesday to purchase machinery. Kesty & Wilson will do some of the work for him.

MEETING POSTPONED.

On account of the indisposition of Hon. C. R. Buckalew and Col. J. G. Freeze, the meeting announced for last Tuesday night at the Opera House, was postponed until Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

A FATAL FIRE.

TWO CHILDREN BURNED AT LIGHTSTREET.

The house occupied by Bert Croman, at Lightstreet, was destroyed by fire last week, Thursday night, and two children were suffocated before they could be rescued. The family resided in the property of Mrs. Oman, at the upper end of the village, and at about ten o'clock at night Mr. Croman went out to the barn to look after his horse, and being delayed longer than was expected, his wife went out to see what detained him. During their absence the lamp exploded, or was knocked off the table by one of the children, and before the parents could return, the room where the children were sleeping was enveloped in flames There were three children, one five months old, another a year and a half, and the third still older. The two younger ones were suffocated, but the third was rescued by the father, after he had been terribly burned about the head and arms. The good people of Lightstreet have presented the bereaved parents with a purse of $75, and a considerable quantity of provisions, as they lost all they owned by the fire. It was a terrible affair, and great sympathy is felt for the afflicted people.

Defenders' Day was appropriately observed in the Opera House on Monday evening. The house was well filled considering the stormy weather. The meeting opened with prayer by Rev. C. H. Brandt. E. J. Bowman delivered an eloquent address, which was received with much applause. The singing of the Amphion Quartette was excellent, and was highly enjoyed by all present. The quartette consists of Frank Colley, A. N. Yost, Ed. Ent and O. H. Yetter. An appropriate address was made by M. P. Lutz, followed by Rev. P. A. Heilman with remarks and the benediction. The Bloomsburg Band was present and rendered some fine selections.

Edward Bok's successful article in the January Cosmopolitan on "The Young Man in Business," has been reprinted in a tasteful and handy booklet form at 10 cents by the Curtis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia. To this reprint Mr. Bok has added some 14 pages of editorial matter answering "Three Uncertain Young Men."

It is always important that every voter should vote at the township election. It is more important than usual this year, because there is to be elected a Congressman-at-Large. There ought to be a full vote polled.

Mrs. Catharine Schmich, of Catawissa, is lying dangerously ill at her sister's, Mrs. Douglas Hughes, in this town.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12, 1894.

Senators Jones, of Ark.,; Vest, of Mo., and Mills, of Texas, the three good democrats charged with the important duty of preparing the amendments to the Wilson tariff bill which are to be submitted to the Senate Finance committee, have proven themselves giants and earned the gratitude of the country, which wants the tariff disposed of at the earliest possible moment, by completing their work, and as the other democratic members of the Finance committee have kept in touch with them in their work it is altogether probable that the amendments reported by them will all be adopted by the committee and that the Wilson bill will be before the Senate before the close of this week. This breaks the record in committee work on tariff bills and is highly creditable to the men who did it, but there is another thing that is even more creditable to them. The bill they have reported will be supported by every democratic Senator. The proposed amendments have not been made public, but they are all in one direction — that of increasing the revenue which the new tariff will produce. There are reasons for the belief that among the proposed amendments are a duty on coal, and on sugar, both raw and refined. The subcommittee made no change in the income tax. One of the principal reasons for largely increasing the revenue features of the tariff bill is that the democratic Senators are opposed to any further issue of bonds and propose to place the Treasury in such a condition that no more will be needed.

Had the House not adjourned Saturday on account of the sudden death of Representative Houk, of Ohio, who dropped dead Friday afternoon while visiting a friend, it is probable that Representative Bland's bill for the coinage of the seigniorage in the Treasury would have passed to-day. That it will pass early this week is the general expectation. There is much talk about the bill being vetoed by President Cleveland, but it is admitted by those who say they expect it to be vetoed that their expectations are not based upon any information they have received from the President. There is also some talk about submitting the bill to a democratic caucus and that may yet be done; not for the purpose of endorsing it but for the purpose of so changing it as to avoid the danger of a veto.

Senator Morgan, of Ala., who is chairman of the Senate committee on Foreign Relations, was at the time the annexation treaty was negotiated with the Representatives of the provisional government of Hawaii strongly in favor of annexation. For that reason it has been feared that he might not agree with his democratic colleagues —Senators Gray and Butler—on the sub-committee which has been making the investigation, as to nature of the report to be made on the evidence taken by the sub committee. I have just learned from a trustworthy source that those fears are entirely groundless, as the three Senators named are in accord and will all sign the majority report. The investigation is closed but the report may not be made to the Senate until after the tariff bill is passed.

The remains of the late Representative Houk, were accompanied to Ohio by a joint Congressional committee composed of the following: Representative Hare, Springer, Bryan, Hulick, McKaig, Ellis, of Oregon, and Ritchie, and Senators Brice, Sherman, Dubois, Hunton, Martin and Allen. Mr. Houk was much liked and the unexpected manner in which he died, while apparently in the best of health, has caused great sorrow among his colleagues and friends.

The House committee on the Judiciary does not take any stock in either the beauties or benefits of woman's suffrage, as was shown by its prompt action in making an unfavorable report on the resolution of Representative Bell, Colorado, providing for a woman's suffrage amendment to the Constitution.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the democratic Congressional campaign committee Senator Faulkner, of West Virginia, was unanimously elected chairman and Lawrence Gardner and James L. Norris, of Washington, secretary and treasurer, respectively. Next week there is to be a joint meeting of this committee and the executive committee of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, for the purpose of arranging the campaign work of this year.

The time of the Court was occupied this week until Wednesday afternoon with the trial of App, Hains & Co. vs. James Magee et al.

HOUSEHOLD ACCIDENTS.

The Proper Treatment of Slight Wounds and Scratches.

A slight cut or abrasion of the hand, or a slight burn, may become a serious matter if it is totally neglected. Where the skin is torn or cut, it is desirable in the first place that the wound should bleed freely. Cases of lockjaw are of rare occurrence where this is the case, and a very slight wound of the hand or foot has been known to produce this dangerous malady where bleeding did not follow.

One of the greatest dangers lies in a wound of a kitchen knife, which may have held impure matter, and even from the scratch of a pin, and fatal cases of blood-poisoning have frequently resulted from so simple a cause. Absolute cleanliness, therefore, is necessary in the treatment of such a wound. After the wound has bled a little it should be washed with perfectly clean water. That which has been boiled is best for the purpose, and there is no harm in using a little carbolic acid in the proportion of a drop or two to a quart of water.

Do not attempt to stanch bleeding by the use of cobwebs, which are naturally dirty and full of impure germs, but use a little lint and a clean cotton or linen cloth. These should be always kept in the houses for use in case of such accidents. A trustworthy druggist will always supply some preparation of carbolic acid, properly weakened for household use. Even household ammonia, though it is painful at first, is recommended as a mild way of cauterizing a simple wound. A thick paste of equal parts of common baking-soda and flour, wet to a paste with cold water, is the best remedy for a burn. It is better than lime-water because lime-water is liable to become incrusted, while the paste of soda and flour is cooling to the surface and can easily be removed. The object of treating a burn is to cover the extremities of the nerves which have been injured and give them opportunity to heal. While such a paste is being prepared, cover the wound for the moment with common flour and wrap it up in clean cotton.

A simple healing plaster which may be prepared in the household calls for half a pound of resin, an ounce each of mutton tallow, camphor-gum and beeswax, half an ounce each of British oil, cedar oil, gum myrrh and linseed oil. Melt the resin, mutton tallow, camphor-gum, beeswax and gum myrrh together and add the oils. This plaster should be spread on cotton when needed and applied to the wound.—N. Y. Tribune.

PHOTOGRAPH CASES.

A Novelty Which Is Easily Made and Very Pretty.

What shall be done with the photographs which are yearly on the increase?

There have been albums and photograph frames and bags, both small and great, in which to deposit them, and still they accumulate.

A pretty idea for a photograph case is to take a piece of cardboard of any size desired, and cover plainly with pink silk. Cover another piece slightly smaller, as in drawing, joining this to the first, and still another piece slightly smaller than the second. Embroider delicate maidenhair ferns in natural shades in corner four, tacking this to the third piece of covered board. Or this corner may be made of white or ecru leather. Fasten the outside edges together, leaving spaces between each card for the photographs, and finish the case with a bow of pale green ribbon to match the ferns

EASILY MADE AND PRETTY.

For amateur photographers another suggestion is to make an album of water color paper, in which the unmounted "snap shots" are to be pasted and each photograph outlined with splashes of gilt. The outside of the album is of heavy pasteboard covered with linen and decorated with lettering suggestive of contents. This classifies the photographs and gives one's friends the pleasure of a camera's sketch book.—N. Y. Herald.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

To KEEP ice in the sick-room over night set the pitcher in a newspaper, gather up the ends, twist them tight and snap on a rubber band.

PRETTY cushions are made of parchment satin, so called on account of its color. Finish with a frill of silk and decorate with flower designs.

COVERS for cups and glasses used in a sick room can be made of cardboard and covered with a crochet cover of either white silk, wool or cotton, as preferred, a small loop being put in the middle of the top to lift it by.

THE English way of serving pineapples is to take the fruit out from the rind in a solid cone. This, with its prickly stem attached, is left intact. The pine is then sliced and piled in its natural shape and the rind fitted on. It is thus sent to the table and served.

A PRETTY tea cloth may be made of a very large dinner napkin or a piece of table linen of suitable size. Select a pretty pattern and outline the design with wash silks. Old gold, deep rose or dark blue is pretty. Another is of fine linen with an inch wide border, hemstitched, then a row of drawn work, then a wide border of cross-stitching worked in wash silks.

THE cardinal rule in a kitchen is to clean up as you go, and if attended to this saves half the labor and fatigue cooks suffer from who pursue the old method of having a grand and comprehensive "clean up."

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the on'y positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Who Makes Burglars' Tools?

THEY ARE BEING CAPTURED EVERY ONCE IN A WHILE—WHERE DO THEY COME FROM?

Every little while the police arrest a man with a kit of burglars' tools in his possession, and one natura'ly wonders where they all come from. It is easy to buy a gun of any description, and the most reputable citizen would not be ashamed to be seen purchasing the most wicked looking knife ever made; but who would know where to get a slung shot, or a jimmie, or a device for drilling into a safe, or any of the many tools used by the professional burglar in the pursuit of his calling?

There probably are places in many large cities where these things are made and sold to the users, but such places are scarce. Once in a while the police find such a factory, and then things go hard for the proprietors.

It may seem a little strange to learn that most of the tools used in burglaries are made by mechanics who are looked upon as repectable men in the community. When a burglar wants any particular tool made he goes to a mechanic who can do the job, and pays him perhaps five times what it is actually worth for making the tool and keeping still about it.—Chicago Herald.

THE USUAL treatment of catarrh is very unsatisfactory, as thousands can testify. Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but many, if not most, of the remedies in general use afford but temporary relief. A cure certainly cannot be expected from snuffs, powders and washes. Ely's Cream Balm, which is so highly commended, is a remedy which combines the important requisities of quick action, specific curative power, with perfect safety and pleasantness to the patient. The druggists all sell it.

Fashionable Livery.

The well known horseman has opened a fashionable livery in connection with his boarding stable at the Exchange Hotel Stables, where fine turnouts can be obtained, single or double. He has well broken and safe saddle and driving horses for ladies, all at reasonable rates. Orders left at the Exchange Hotel will receive prompt attention. Drivers furnished when desired.

tf W. A. HARTZELL, Proprietor

A lot of new notes of the sharpest kind have just been printed and are for sale at this office. Also common receipts, estate receipts, and collectors' receipts, neatly bound in books of 25, 50 and 100. tf.

A Sad Predicament.

Mabel—I was so mortified at the Pouch mansion the other night.

Flo—What happened.

Mabel—I wanted to laugh in my sleeves, but I had on my decollete gown and had to hide the laugh in my glove.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.—"Mystic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cts. Sold by C. A. Kleim, Druggist, Bloomsburg. 11-10-8m.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1894.

STATE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Representative-at-Large-in-Congress,

JAMES DENTON HANCOCK,

of Venango County.

JAMES DENTON HANCOCK.

The President sent the following nominations to the Senate on Tuesday: John R. Read, of Philadelphia, Collector of the Port; Dr. Eugene Townsend, Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia; P. Gray Meek, of Bellefonte, Surveyor of the Port at Philadelphia; Gen. St. Clair A. Mulholland, Pension Agent; J. Marshall Wright, Naval Officer. They are all prominent and well known Democrats and their selection by the President is a recognition of Secretary Harrity.

There is no reason why any Democrat should vote for A. D. Markley, the candidate of the so-called Pennsylvania Democracy, for Congressman-at-Large. The candidate regularly nominated by the Democratic State Convention is James Denton Hancock, whose name is printed in the second column of the ballots. Markley is the candidate of a few Philadelphia kickers, who because they cannot control the patronage of the state, have put him in the field to reduce the vote for Mr. Hancock, if possible, hoping thereby to injure the influence of Secretary Harrity, the acknowledged leader of the party. It is a bit of petty spite work that ought not to be encouraged. Vote for Hancock.

Hon. James Denton Hancock, Democratic candidate for congressman-at large has written a letter in which he discusses at length, and with great clearness and ability, the present political situation. Concerning the depression in business he says:

"Why then the clamorous cry of calamity sent abroad by the advocates of protection? They have without cause proclaimed to the world that the prosperity of the State depends upon the frail thread of a prohibitory tariff which may exist to-day and to morrow be cut in twain. They have destroyed the credit of their business men and manufacturers, and by reason thereof, many who might successfully have conducted their affairs have been engulfed in ruin. Why have not the bankers, whom a great philosopher has called the economical crown of industrial enterprizes, raised their voices against this cry of alarm? I appeal not to the puppets of a partisan newspaper press who have misrepresented the condition of the industries of the state, but to the heads of her great manufactories and the other industries which have been the support of her prosperity. They are business men in the higher sense. They are men of affairs. One of them, the greatest manfacturer in the city of Pittsburgh, has already spoken, and declared his belief that the duties imposed by the McKinley law were unfair and that he was willing to accept much lower duties. Why do not the other heads of these great lines of industry, place a curb upon the mouths of those who have so grossly misrepresented their conditions? If, instead of permitting the constant reiteration of gross libels upon the Wilson bill, they would study its provisions; and adapt their business to its conditions, more rapidly than they conceive of, prosperity greater than ever before would return to their state, which would march forward to the highest place in our community of commonwealths.

It's just as easy to try One Minute Cough Cure as any thing else. Its easier cure a severe cold or cough with it. Let your next purchase for a cough be One Minute Cough Cure. Better medicine; better result; better try it. —N. S. Rishton, Druggist.

CAUSES OF THE PANIC.

The true and real causes of the recent financial depression, and the consequent suspension of manufacturing industries and general business interests, should be carefully studied by the voter who desires to exercise the right of suffrage intelligently and with a view of doing what he can to correct the political evils, that have afflicted this country.

When President Cleveland surrendered his office on March 4th, 1889, there was a surplus in the United States Treasury of upwards of one hundred millions of dollars. The question which confronted the administration of President Harrison upon its advent to power, was, what shall be done with the surplus? Secretary Blaine and other prominent Republicans favored a distribution among the several States. But this device was abandoned and the Reed Congress of 1889–90 adopted the plan of increasing appropriations for public buildings and other expenditures not immediately necessary, under which contracts were entered into by the Government, that require continuous appropriations of many millions of dollars in excess of the ordinary expenditures. This reckless extravagance has caused that body to bear the odious sobriquet of the Billion Dollar Congress. While the surplus left in the Treasury by Mr. Cleveland's first administration was thus wiped out by the Reed Congress, to make assurance doubly sure that no surplus should again accumulate, the same body enacted what is known as the McKinley tariff law. While this act placed sugar on the free list, and gave the sugar producers a bounty that averages about ten millions of dollars per annum, thus depriving the Government of an annual revenue of some seventy millions of dollars, and adding ten millions to its annual liabilities, it imposed such enormous duties on other articles as to prevent importations in some instances and to induce undervaluations and smuggling, all of which operated to reduce the revenues to a point far below the actual necessities of the Government. Meanwhile the absurd and mischievous "Sherman Act" which required that the Government should pay out $4,500,000 per month in the purchase of silver bullion, imposed a burden upon the Government that it was scarcely able to bear during the last months of the Harrison administration. The consequence was, that the foreign holders of United States securities, cognizant of the fact that the revenues of our Government were falling short many millions of dollars of its actual requirements, became alarmed and drew upon this country for gold by throwing their holdings of United States securities upon our market. The outflow of gold thus induced had the effect of producing a stringency in the money market, which was followed by a loss of confidence in banking institutions, which were in turn obliged to call in their loans or close their doors, and the end of it all was a stoppage of the wheels of industry and business.

Such was the condition which confronted the administration of Mr. Cleveland when he assumed the reins of power on March 4, 1893. The new President was obliged to call Congress together in extra session in order to provide ways and means to avert the disaster which threatened the country. At Mr. Cleveland's suggestion Congress repealed the "Sherman Act" and at once confidence in the banks was restored and many of those institutions which had suspended, resumed operations. Money again became abundant in the great financial centres and now awaits distribution throughout the country through the marketing of products of farm and mill and factory. The passage of the Wilson tariff bill by the House of Representatives has already given a great impetus to manufactures. Mills and factories that have been idle since last Spring are now starting up and the number of the unemployed grows smaller day by day. When free raw materials for the manufacturers and cheaper necessaries of life for the workingmen shall have been assured by the passage of the Wilson tariff bill in the Senate, an era in activity in production and trade will surely set in which will prove to be one of substantial and enduring prosperity.

The salient points to be remembered and reflected upon by the intelligent voter, therefore, are

1. President Cleveland left the Treasury with a surplus exceeding One Hundred Millions of Dollars when he surrendered office on March 4, 1889.

2. Ex-President Harrison, owing to the hurtful legislation of the Reed Congress of 1889-90, including the Sherman Silver Purchasing Act and the McKinley Tariff Law, left the Treasury bankrupt, with a deficiency in the revenues of nearly Fifty Millions of Dollars, when he surrendered office on March 4, 1893.

When the Government itself lacks the revenues necessary to meet its liabilities, it naturally follows that the creditor class among its subjects will lose confidence in the ability of the debtor class to meet its obligations. The Harrison administration brought the Government to this pass and is responsible for the financial and industrial disasters that have supervened. The Democratic party, through President Cleveland and the present Congress, has already corrected the fatal blunder of the Sherman Silver Purchasing Act and under the instruction of the people at the ballot box in 1892, is preparing the remedy for the stupid and mischievous revenue legislation embodied in the McKinley Tariff law. Let the people of Pennsylvania, by supporting JAMES DENTON HANCOCK for Representative-at-Large in Congress, at the election on Tuesday, February 20, testify their approval of the efforts of President Cleveland and the Democracy to restore financial soundness to the Government and industrial prosperity to the country.

Loss of the Kearsarge.

The historic steamer Kearsarge, of the U. S. Navy, foundered on the night of Feb. 2, off Roncador reef, Nicaragua. All on board were saved.

The Kearsarge was one of the historical vessels of the American navy. She, on Sunday, June 19, 1864, fought and sank the rebel privateer Alabama, commanded by Capt. Semmes, had captured or destroyed a large number of union merchantmen. Finally the pursuit of her became so hot on the Atlantic coast that she sailed for the cape of Good Hope, and cruised in the eastern seas. Subsequently she returned, arriving in the English channel in June, 1864, and the 11th of that month she entered the French port of Cherbourg to refit and get supplies. Within a short time the Kearsarge arrived. Capt. Winslow, a former shipmate of Capt. Semmes, commanded her.

The Kearsarge made a demonstration off the port which the commander of the Alabama took to be a challenge. He sent notice to the United States consul that he would sail out and fight the Kearsarge. The two ships to appearance were not equally matched, but the Kearsarge had a larger crew and was better armed than the Alabama. She was besides protected amidships by armor. The fight took place on Sunday, June 19, off Cherbourg, all inhabitants of the place watching it from the neighboring heights. The result of the battle is well known. Before the contest had lasted an hour Captain Semmes found the ship sinking and gave orders to haul down the flag. The boats were got out and the wounded placed in them, but before the Kearsarge could come to the rescue the Alabama went to the bottom. The boats of the Kearsarge saved many of the Alabama's crew. Others, including Capt. Semmes, were picked up by the English yacht Deerhound, which had been allowed by the captain of the Kearsarge to help in rescuing the Alabama's crew.

Almost Blind

Inflamed Eyes and Running Sores

The Success of Hood's Causes Great Rejoicing—A Perfect Cure.

Miss Cora B. Ebert
Barnesville, Pa.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"I feel it a duty to state what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I was almost blind, being compelled to stay in a darkened room on account of inflammation of the eyes. I also suffered with running sores on my body. I was in terrible condition. My mother tried every thing she knew about and I was attended by two doctors but without helping me. Finally Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I had not taken two bottles before I began to get better. The inflammation left my eyes and the sores healed, and the result was that and was restored to perfect health. At that time I was only twelve years old; now I am nineteen and I have not since been troubled with my eyes or noticed any sign of a return of the sores on my body. I can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as an excellent blood purifying medicine." MISS CORA EBERT, Barnesville, Pa.

TOWN TOPICS,

The Journal of Society,

(32 PAGES.) NEW YORK. (THURSDAY.)

Is universally recognized as the most complete weekly journal in the world.

Its "Saunterings" columns are inimitable. Its society news, especially of the doings of the 400 of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, and all over the world, is not excelled by any newspaper. Its Financial Department is authority with all bankers and brokers. Its "Literary Show"—notes on current literature—is by the cleverest of reviewers. Its "Afield and Afloat" makes it the most interesting paper for all lovers of sport—yachting, football, rowing, shooting, fishing, etc. Its "On the Turf" excels all other racing notes. Its burlesques, poems and jokes are the cleverest. Its stories are by the best writers—among them Amélie Rives, F. Marion Crawford, Julian Hawthorne, Edgar Fawcett, Gilbert Parker, Mary J. Hawker ("Lance Falconer"), Barry Pain, Paul Bourget, Rudyard Kipling, Ambrose Bierce, etc., etc., and are, even if a trifle risqué, yet always clever, bright and pretty, without coarseness or anything to offend the most refined and moral woman. In addition to all this there is each week a supplement, portrait, in colors, of some man eminent in his walk of life.

Tales From Town Topics

Quarterly, first day of March, June, September, December; 256 pages; 12mo. Contains in each number, in addition to short stories, poems, burlesques, etc., from the old issues of TOWN TOPICS, a complete, original prize story of 120 to 150 pages.

No one who enjoys the highest class of fiction, and would be au courant with all that pertains to good society, can afford to be without TOWN TOPICS every week. There is so much interesting reading in it and in the "Tales," that a club subscription to both will supply any family with abundant reading of the most entertaining character all the year.

THE NEWS of the WORLD

CONCISELY TOLD AND BRIGHTLY COMMENTED UPON.

THE PATRIOT is the only complete morning newspaper that reaches central Pennsylvania at an early hour of the day.

It is one of the foremost Democratic newspapers in the state and the only one printed at the State Capital, the official and political center of the Commonwealth.

It prints the news, receiving it over its own wires through the extraordinary facilities of the great Press Association, aided by its own correspondents.

THE PATRIOT is Democratic to the core. It is opposed to bosses and as enemy of corrupt monopolies. It isn't afraid to fight the wrong; it never hesitates to speak for the right.

It makes a specialty of department news and gives more each day than all the other State papers combined.

The leading question during the winter will be Tariff Reform. In November next Pennsylvania will elect a Governor, members of Congress, and a State Legislature. The man who desires to keep informed must read, and the man who reads should get THE PATRIOT, daily or weekly.

To place THE PATRIOT in the hands of a yet larger constituency we will send the DAILY from now until March 1, 1895, by mail to any new subscriber on receipt of FIVE DOLLARS. The WEEKLY will be sent to any new subscriber from now until March 1, 1895, on receipt of ONE DOLLAR.

THE PATRIOT is the best advertising medium in Pennsylvania outside of Pittsburg and Philadelphia.

LABOR AFFILIATION.

Its Advantages to Capital and Labor Explained by Gompers.

The Scheme Is However Largely Tentative—A Few Questions Propounded for Public Spirited Men to Answer—The Story of a War Judge.

[COPYRIGHT, 1894.]

THE project for an affiliation of all the labor orders of the country, whereby the trades unions will acknowledge some one central authority instead of being divided, as now, into two great orders, is perhaps the most important subject which union labor has had under consideration in many years. The very magnitude of the undertaking appears to be responsible for much misunderstanding with reference to it. The scheme is largely tentative. It is not proposed to amalgamate the American Federation of Labor, the Knights of Labor and independent unions into an entirely new order. On the contrary, the idea is to maintain the autonomy of all existing organizations, but to make them allies in a more systematic way than has heretofore been thought possible. In other words, it is a closer application of labor's favorite motto: "In union there is strength."

When, at the last annual meeting of the American Federation of Labor, there was formally presented a proposition from Mr. James R. Sovereign, General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor, for a conference of delegates on this much discussed project of affiliation, a committee of three received instructions to act in the premises. As a member of that committee, I have found a general agreement among the members as to the desirability of maintaining the principle of home rule. That is, no central power of any kind should be granted authority to interfere with the affairs of particular trades. The printers must be left to govern the concerns of printers, carpenters of carpenters, and so on. It has always been my opinion that what have been termed the mistakes of organized labor grow out of the disregard of this principle. Fortunately, a clearer understanding of this matter begins to prevail. Now, under a judicious system of alliance, we should not witness such things as an ill-advised strike brought to failure through lack of cooperation on the part of an allied trade. Not that the idea of strikes is necessarily associated with this project. Indeed, one of its chief claims to consideration is the fact that it will lessen the provocation to strikes, and enable organized labor to redress its wrongs more effectively.

One effective way in contemplation is, of course, through the ballot-box. This has led to the supposition that the new movement is in reality the formation of another political party. That is leaping at a conclusion. When the wool-growers assemble to discuss the tariff, nobody accuses them of trying to form a new political party, even assuming that political parties are manufactured in this expeditious way. The labormen's idea is to ally themselves and then say: "We, the workingmen of the republic, believe that such and such a law is unjust to us. We wish it done away with."

It will then be in order for the lawmakers to determine whether the great love they have for the workingmen, as per platform planks, is sufficient to warrant them in granting the concession.

This, it seems to me, will be one of the chief benefits of the proposed new order of things. But it should not be thought that there is any intention of threatening or bullying. The tyranny of the majority is as odious to union labor as any other form of tyranny. Indeed, it seems to me that even those elements in the community which take but a languid interest in labor matters should be glad that there is a project afoot which promises to do away with the wearisome disputes over the question of labor's power and labor's wrongs. It is hardly likely in the face of a solidified alliance of workingmen's unions that the absurd aspects of labor's disputes with capital will continue, as we have seen exemplified recently, when a judge signed a document restraining a strike on a railroad. I use the word absurd in connection with this, not in criticism of any judicial power, but because I cannot understand how a piece of paper, however legal, can compel 80,000 men to do a thing which every one of them is resolved not to do. They tell a story of a war judge who issued an injunction restraining the battle of Gettysburg, yet the battle of Gettysburg was fought, I believe. We hear a great deal of the absurd ideas of workingmen on the subject of the redression of their wrongs, but the curious devices which capital resorts to have not, apparently, received the same amount of attention. When a certain number of railroad hands have decided that their pay is miserably inadequate for their support, putting aside any thought of their families, and conclude that they will not work for their corporation employers unless their pay is increased, it seems to me a curious thing that they should all be threatened with jail on the ground that they have entered into a conspiracy, the evidence of the supposed conspiracy being the fact that they all quit work together.

The proposed cooperation of labor orders would have much to do with these conspiracies. It would endeavor to convince the powers that be that the conspiracy contemplated nothing more dreadful than the procuring of adequate wages for a day's work and would further try to punish the railroad magnates who enter into a conspiracy to carry the traveling public from one city to another to their own pecuniary profit. Should it be pointed out, as the judge I have in mind pointed out, that the workingmen's conspiracy injured the people who used the road, the labor allies could show that the conspiracy of the railroad directors to keep down the rate of wages was injuring the business of an entire community, because the shopkeepers who traded with the railroad hands were losing good customers, and the community itself was being impoverished. If the law still favored the capitalistic conspirators instead of the "labor conspirators," the conspiracy laws themselves—long a hateful tyranny to workingmen—would be made the subject of an utterance to the lawmaking power.

Now all this is not creating a new political party. It is simply bringing the power of organized labor to bear on authority. Moreover, the redress thus sought would be obtained far more speedily than through the present method of waiting for election day to come around, not to mention that as matters stand now there is no central power with authority to voice the demands of labor generally. Of course there exist very adequate means of setting forth the wishes of influential sections of the working classes. The difficulty has heretofore been that there was no harmony in the multitude of plans for relief.

When the labor organizations have formally allied themselves, it will be possible, I think, to secure such reforms as government ownership of railways and the telegraph far more speedily than through any other channel of public opinion. One of the chief tasks of the new regime will be to push these favorite measures by an active propaganda. Another thing will be the conciliation of those elements opposed to labor unions by a series of actions and utterances that will show how fair-minded workingmen really are. It will be made clear that everybody's interest is to let the workingman be prosperous.

From present appearances there is likely to be no great difference of opinion among the members of the committee on the subject of organization. There may be what may be termed an advisory council, in which the referendum will form a court of last resort. For I am convinced that the unions will never submit to the dictation of a federate committee. The present subjection to capitalistic tyranny is so hateful that relief will not be sought in subjection to anything equally unrepresentative. The functions of the advisory council may be to outline policies and recommend measures. These policies and measures should in turn be submitted to a referendum on organized labor and the majority vote ought to decide. It seems to me that when the one million or more of union workmen have voted among themselves on accertain measure and have agreed upon it with practical unanimity, the result upon the lawmaking power will not fail to be satisfactory.

As I have said, workingmen are not in favor of strikes until every other fair means to obtain redress has failed. Under an amalgamation of labor orders a large general strike would be less likely to occur because such a variety of different trades would be called upon to participate and the general discussion would tend to evolve some satisfactory plan of settlement. If the demand of the men were fair, the discussion would enlist public sympathy and bring moral as well as general victory. And if the demands of the men themselves were not fair, their brother unionists would be the first to acknowledge the fact.

This naturally leads to the old question of the temptations labor leaders are asserted to be under to show their authority by precipitating a strike—the bigger the better. It never seems to occur to outsiders that the most to suffer by strikes are the labor leaders themselves. If the leaders were the selfish and mercenary creatures their enemies make them out to be, living in luxury and traveling in state, they would naturally dread a strike. For their revenues and the revenues of their orders come exclusively from the wages of the members. Throw those members out of employment and those revenues cease. The treasury of the order is drained for their support and a momentous responsibility is thrown upon the labor leader. Why, then, should he long to bring about a strike? Why should he be so anxious to leave his fine horses and his carriages, his picture galleries and conservatories, to say nothing of his hosts of friends in the Four Hundred, for whom he sets the fashion, to lead a lot of impoverished wageworkers, ill clothed and ill fed as they frequently are, when in nine cases out of ten the result is so aggravating to himself? The public-spirited men who have been denouncing the new scheme of alliance as a provocation to strikes on a gigantic scale, owing to the bullying labor leaders, can, no doubt, answer these questions.

In fine, the workingmen of the United States have been forced to consider and act upon this contemplated alliance. I believe it will be a success, that it will bring harmony, redress many wrongs and lead to the ultimate emancipation of labor.

Be Ought to Know.

A good story is told by one of a party of sightseers that was recently being shown over the house in Stratford-on-Avon in which Shakespeare was born. The guide pointed out in the room in which the great man's mother introduced William to the world sundry alleged autographs on the whitewashed walls of great actors and actresses of the present century. Among them were the names of Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft.

"This is not Mr. Bancroft's signature," said a tall man who was one of the party.

much attention at a Washington ball by her remarkable appearance of health. The glow and the charm of beauty need not depart from so many women, when a certain remedy exists in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for their functional and organic diseases. It properly cures nausea, indigestion, bloating, weak back, nervous prostration, debility and sleeplessness. Strength is renewed, energy returns, and beauty again blooms. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. Druggists have it.

As a specimen of the dodges that are being resorted to by those who are opposed to the government's printing its own postage stamps that of bringing a committee there with a petition from the New York plate printers, setting forth the distress that would fall upon them should the government take this work away from them, is about the most transparent yet resorted to. The lowest private bidder for the work is a Philadelphia concern. So that the New York company is bound to lose the work, whether it comes to Washington, where it really belongs, or not.

"I OWE MY LIFE TO YOU."

A Wilton, N. J., Girl's Experience With a Noted Massachusetts Woman.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Life is never more precious than in the heyday of youth, when every dream is a promise, and every thought an inspiration.

It is natural that Miss Gertrude Sickler, a young lady who lives at Wilton, N.J., is grateful for the great boon of life.

She suffered terribly with suppressed and painful menstruations. The doctors could only prevent her from having fits each month by dosing her with morphine.

At last, when she was completely prostrated, her father got her a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which at once gave her relief.

That did what the doctors could not do. It cured her. She has no trouble now, and no dread of the coming month. "I owe my life to you," she writes to Mrs. Pinkham. "Oh, if other suffering women could try your valuable medicine they would bless you as I do."

VIGOROUS HEALTH FOR MEN

THE PASTILLE CURE FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY TRADE MARK

Prof. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED Pastille

Has been put up in a proprietary form since 1878, and has been used for years prior to that time in private practice. It is no untried nostrum, of doubtful reputation, but a genuine specific for a very prevalent disease. Thousands of men, of all ages, have at some time in life brought on nervous debility and exhaustion, with organic weakness, by over brain work, excesses, too frequent indulgence or indiscretion and vicious habits, and it is to these that we offer a remedy that will, by its direct action upon the seat of the disease, stop the drain and restore the patient to vigorous health and strength.

Our method of introducing

treatment is one which commends itself to all sensible persons—for the reason that we supply it upon their judgment of its value. We ask of our patrons nothing in the way of expense beyond a postal card and a two cent postage stamp. The postal card to be used in sending us their full address and the postage stamp for the letter returning the statement of their case for which we supply them with a question blank, to be filled out, and an envelope addressed to ourselves for use in returning it when filled.

FREE TRIAL PACKAGE. When we receive the statement on blank we prepare eight days' treatment and forward it by mail and prepay postage thereon—and along with the eight days' treatment we send full directions for using. The treatment in no way interferes with a person's attention to business, and causes no pain or inconvenience in any way.

We are so positive that it will give perfect satisfaction that we leave the matter of sending orders entirely with those using the free trial treatment.

Having satisfied those sending for trial packages of our ability to benefit their sexual condition we feel that they are more largely interested than ourselves in continuing the use of the Pastilles. Even then we do not attempt to rob them by demanding high prices. On the contrary, we make the prices as low as possible, and the same to all. They are as follows: $3.00 for one month; $5.00 for two months; $7.00 for three months.

Trade Mark. SHAPE & SIZE OF A SEMINAL PASTILLE

These prices secure the delivery of the Pastilles by mail. If desired by express we leave the patient to pay the charges. For over ten years we have operated our business upon this plan with satisfactory results.

We ask all persons needing treatment for any of the secret ills which come to mankind through a violation of nature's laws to send us their address on postal card or by letter and allow us to convince them that PROF. HARRIS' SOLUBLE MEDICATED PASTILLES have merit and are what they need.

Care Of Lamps.

IT IS A WORK OF ART TO KEEP THEM IN GOOD CONDITION.

Lamps of some description are found in almost every home. Not only do the handsome banquet lamps and dainty fairy lamps, which are often used in connection with gas or electric lights, require special care, but the commoner sorts, with their cheap burners and narrow wicks should receive intelligent care if we would secure the best results. This will not prove to be hard labor; in fact, it is quite a work of art. Why not? What can give greater satisfaction than a lamp properly cared for—the bright shining burner, the clear polished globe, the well-rounded wick, all brought out distinctly by the mellow rays from the lamp? Yet there are homes (we see them occasionally) in which the lamps are really repulsive-looking things. The bowls are greasy, dusty affairs; the burners are blackened by months of use; the chimneys are smoked brown, and the light so dim that a home made candle would be taken in preference by many.

Lamps should receive daily attention, in the morning, if possible.

There is much difference of opinion among housekeepers as to whether globes should be washed. Some good housewives contend they should not. However, that is only a matter of opinion. A large basin of rain water should constitute a part of the "lamper's" outfit; good soap, a soft cloth to wash the globes, another to dry them, and one to polish them.

The lamp bowl should be emptied once a week, and it should be thoroughly washed and rinsed, as the best kerosene contains a sediment that will clog the wick, which, by the way, should be washed and rinsed once a month. If the wick gets too short to burn through an evening it may be lengthened or an entire new wick may be pieced to it. This is, of course, for one of an economic turn of mind.

If the wick does not work easy in the burner pull one or two threads out of it, and usually the difficulty will have disappeared.

To secure a well shaped light is some trouble and a constant source of annoyance when one trims the wicks, a thing not to be recommended. First, take time and trim the wicks into good shape. Try it by lighting the lamp; work with it until you are satisfied with the shape and size of the light, then trim it no more. When caring for the lamp, pinch the black crust off the wick with the thumb and the first finger. This will usually insure you a well shaped light.

The burners should be boiled in lye every month. That made from wood ashes is the best. Wash them in clear water and polish with Spanish whiting or any good polish for silverware. The burners should be repolished weekly.

Before giving the kerosene can out to be refilled, it should be washed out with hot soap suds, rinsed in clear water and thoroughly dried.

In selecting lamps be sure that the base is heavy enough to prevent their toppling over easily. If it is necessary to use a lamp in the kitchen choose a wall or bracket lamp with a good burner and reflector. See that it is placed in such a position that the rays will be thrown directly upon the range and work-table. The wicks in all lamps should exactly fit the burner; if too large they will not turn readily and the light will become dull; if too small, the flame will flicker and not give a bright, steady light. Attention to details will prove very important, and but little time will be required to secure good results.

Don't waste time, money, and health, trying every new medicine you may see advertised in the papers. If the cause of your trouble is in the blood, liver, stomach, or kidneys, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla at once, and be sure of a cure. Take no other.

A Remarkable Offer to Ladies.

The Consumers Wholesale Tea & Spice Co., of Cincinnati, are offering Ladies a grand opportunity to earn some useful and ornamental household goods, without much effort on their part and absolutely without their having to invest any money.

They offer to give as a premium a set of Silver-Plated Knives and Forks to any lady getting up a club order, among her friends, of $6.00 worth of their Teas, Spices, Flavoring Extracts, Baking Powder, Complexion Soap, etc., or a set of finely decorated China Dishes for a $12.00 club order, also a choice of 100 valuable premiums for clubs of different amounts.

They ship the goods together with premium, all charges prepaid, and give plenty of time for you to deliver the goods and collect the money before remitting to them.

They also make "Special Offers" of premiums to ladies who will get up club orders for the benefit of their Churches or Aid Societies, thus you can earn a fine Pulpit Bible, Reading Desk, Hymn Books, Pulpit Lamp, and many other useful articles for your Church or Sunday School.

You had better write them for full particulars. Their address is, The Consumers Wholesale Tea & Spice Co., 545 West Sixth Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

LIGHT STREET.

On Thursday night last at half past nine o'clock the alarm of fire was given, which proved to be the house occupied by Bert Croman, by which two little children were burned to death. The origin of the fire is unknown, but supposition is that the lamp exploded, there being no one in the house at the time, as Mrs. Croman had gone to the barn to see why her husband stayed so long.

The party that left town on Wednesday last to visit Rev. Chilcoat's, had a very narrow escape above Orangeville. One of the loads upset, the little girl of P. W. Zeigler being thrown down the embankment and picked up just as the passenger train came rushing along.

On Tuesday night of last week a number of people from Briarcreek called at the residence of Mr. Sterner.

St. Valentine's day was observed as usual by the young people of town.

Mrs. James Grimes, Sr., is confined to her bed.

Mr. Croman will go to house keeping in Geo. Grimes' property.

IT SHARPENS the appetite, improves digestion, and restores health and vigor; all the organs of the body are roused to healthy action by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. More than all, the liver—and that's the key to the whole system. You have pure blood or poisonous blood, just as your liver chooses. The blood controls the health, the liver controls the blood, the "Discovery" controls the liver.

You can escape just about half the ills that flesh is heir to, by being ready for them. Brace the system up with this medicine, which prevents as well as cures. For all diseases caused by a disordered liver or impure blood—dyspepsia, biliousness, the most stubborn skin, scalp and scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is the only remedy so certain and effective that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get.

Catarrh is cured by using Dr. Sage's Remedy.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cleaens, purifies and heals. It was made for that purpose. Use it for burns, cuts, bruises, chapped hands, sores of all descriptions and if you have piles use it for them.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

NOTHING TO FIGHT ABOUT.

[Editorial from "The Philadelphia Record," Thursday, February 6, 1894.]

The effort to bring the Democrats of Pennsylvania together has disclosed the fact that they are together. They have no differences of opinion upon any question of policy, State or National, upon which Democrats differ with their Republican opponents. So much for the party at large.

The wrangle that distracts the party in Philadelphia cannot be magnified into a State affair. To state the cause of it is to show its insignificance and the folly of keeping it alive. When it became the duty of Governor Pattison, after his election, to select the Secretary of the Commonwealth and the Attorney General he chose Mr. William F. Harrity for the former office and Mr. William U. Hensel for the latter. Both of these gentlemen had rendered the party distinguished service. No man doubts their competency or deserving. But, for reasons entirely personal to themselves, the selection did not please Mr. George McGowan and certain associates who can be counted upon the fingers of one hand. These few disgruntled Democrats, in order to feed fat their private grudges, have attempted to organize what they call the "Pennsylvania Democracy." They are the "Pennsylvania Democracy." Without them there would be no such thing.

The Record has no quarrel with these gentlemen, and, with a view to harmony, has lately sought to find the causes of their grievances and to persuade them to fall into line with the mass of the party. Acting as their spokesman, Mr. McGowan has informed the Record that they are not after official recognition or spoils. All they desire is a reformation of the faulty rules prepared by Mr. McGowan himself for the management of the Democratic organization in this city, and left by him as a legacy to the present Democratic party management. But they refused to meet a committee of the regular organization with a view to a peaceful understanding.

There will not be the least difficulty in bringing about such a change of the McGowan rules as will deprive the temporary chairmen of ward conventions of their arbitrary power to prevent fair representation. There is no doubt of the propriety of such a change; nor is there any doubt of the willingness of the Democrats now in control of the regular organization to assist in effecting it. Upon this subject the Record speaks with authority; and it leaves the few gentlemen who constitute the "Pennsylvania Democracy" without ground to stand upon, except their own private disappointments and animosities.

Of course, the true Democrats of Pennsylvania will not have their eyes blinded to the fact that behind the pretended zeal for reform in party methods is the accursed lust for power and place, which is the perpetual bane of minority organizations cut off from other than accidental opportunities for its gratification. The willingness, however, to carry a factional fight to such an extent as to oppose the regular nominee of the party for Congressman-at-large should make an end of the malaperts undertaking it. Their refusal to agree upon terms of conciliation has disgusted those most disposed to stand by them.

The opportunity which offers at the February election to indorse the Federal and State Administrations, and to crush out mousing and mutinous cabal who have sought to involve other well-meaning Democrats in their own petty and selfish malignity, should not be allowed to pass unimproved. The party cannot afford to go into bankruptcy and enforce a liquidation simply because it has a pimple on its little finger.

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genessee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

That we have investigated all bills of indictment, &c., and further examined the public buildings and find that some of the water closets at jail need attention, they lack water at the flush valve which should be packed. We also found one closet stopped up, we found it had corn cob and glassware in it with paper and rags We think the Sheriff should see that the closets are better cared for, and that the above mentioned valve should be repaired.

We recommend that some way be provided to carry the water away from conductors on Court House other than over the pavement. We notice that the water comes through the porch in front of the Court House and freezes, which we think will injure the stone and brick work of the same. This we think should be looked after by the County Commissioners. We also recommend that the Treasurer's office be furnished with one revolving chair, and that the Recorder's office have the following repairs and furniture: Four new chairs, one of them a revolving chair, the railing and counter moved out in room so as to give more room behind the counter. We also recommend the proper authority to notify the Janitor to keep the windows and globes on gas jets cleaner than heretofore.

W. H. HOUSEL, Foreman.

North Conyngham election district divided and is now as follows: West North with polling place at public house of Daniel Roach at Montana, with Wm. Goodman as Judge and Joseph Bucher and Chas. Kostenbauder as Inspectors. East North with polling place as before division.

Com. vs. A. Warner, charge larceny. Defendant was indicted for breaking into and robbing the Berwick depot. After a sharp contest occuping most of Tuesday the jury went out, and brought in a sealed verdict on Wednesday morning, finding the defendant not guilty.

On Wednesday afternoon the grand jury made a report in favor of a borough for the village of Benton.

SECOND WEEK.

Appearance docket read and judgm'ts tak'n. List of jurors called. A. P. Young, of Berwick, out of county. A. S. Truckenmiller, of Catawissa, and W. M. Huntingdon, of Montour, excused, the latter on account of sickness in his family.

The trial list was read over and out of the 29 cases on it, five are marked as settled, sixteen continued and eight for trial, being as follows:

Mary Baylor et. al. vs. Nelson Hartman, executor, &c., et. al. of Andrew Clark, dec'd.

E. K. Adams adm'r. vs. Samuel W. Adams. Judgment opened.

App. Haines & Co. vs. James Magee et. al. Mechanics lien. Defts plead nil. debit.

Sarah Call vs. John Steely, et. al. Ejectment.

W. R Ringrose for use vs. Town of Bloomsburg. Damage. Defendant pleads not guilty.

North Bros. M'f'g. Co. vs. J. W. Mears & Co.

L. T. Rider vs. Chas. Hughes.

Clyde Chamberlin vs. Joseph M. Lilly.

Mary Baylor vs. Nelson C. Hartman, executor, and devisee and Alice Hartman his wife, devisee. Feigned issue. Case heard and jury found that a certain writing purporting to have been made the 23rd of Nov. 1888, and alleged to be the last will and testament of the said Andrew Clark, dec'd., is not the last will and testament of the said Andrew Clark and so we find a verdict in favor of the plaintiff Mary Baylor.

J. L. Evans, Esq., appointed auditor in estate of Daniel Martz, dec'd.

The case of App. Haines & Co vs. James Magee et. al. Mechanics lien, now on trial.

DR. KILMER'S

SWAMP-ROOT

CURED ME

And Made Life More Enjoyable.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Gentlemen:—"It affords me pleasure to give you a recommendation for Dr. Kilmer's SWAMP-ROOT, of which I have taken 3 small bottles. It has nearly removed the effect of the Rheumatism of about 7 years standing, also a severe weakness of my back and kidneys of about 10 years' standing and has helped a severe attack of inflammation of the bladder, which I am sure SWAMP-ROOT will entirely cure me of in a short time. I purchased the medicine of S. G. Stone, the Druggist here in Butler, Ind."

RHEUMATISM! RHEUMATISM!

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

"For the past twenty years I had been troubled with Rheumatism and doctored a great deal without realizing any benefit. Two years ago my attention was called to Dr. Kilmer's SWAMP-ROOT, which was highly recommended to me. I thought I would try a bottle and I used fourteen bottles. It has done me more good than all the Doctors and all the other medicines I had ever taken in the past twenty years. The past year has been one of comfort in place of suffering. A great many are using your SWAMP-ROOT in Van Wert.

Yours respectfully, Feb. 19th, 1893.
